Transportation Guidelines:

UCAN Volunteers give their personal time to provide all the organization's services. They receive no compensation for the time or expenses incurred during their volunteer time. For these reasons, the following guidelines apply to clients receiving Urbandale Community Action Network transportation services:

- Treat UCAN volunteers and staff in a courteous, respectful manner.
- Give at least 48 hours' notice when requesting services.
- Do not ask for additional stops.
- Give ample notice when cancelling a trip.
- Make all appointment requests through the Urbandale Community Action Network's Office. office@urbandalenetwork.org or 515-334-2632.

In Case of a Medical Emergency

If you experience a medical emergency while using UCAN transportation services, the volunteer will call 911 and will stay with you until medical personnel arrive. Your emergency contact will be notified.

Release of Liability

By using the UCAN transportation services, I expressly assume the risk and legal liability and waive all claims for injuries, damage, or loss I might sustain because of said services. I acknowledge that UCAN is neither a common carrier nor in the business of providing transportation services to the public. I further acknowledge there are certain risks of physical injury to vehicle passengers and voluntarily agree to assume the full risks of any injuries, damage, or loss, regardless of severity, that I may sustain because of participating in UCAN's transportation services. I further agree to waive and relinquish all claims against UCAN, including its respective officials, agents, volunteers, and employees

I understand that I must be officially accepted before becoming a client. I understand that misrepresentation or omission of facts requested in this application is cause for rejection as an Urbandale Community Action Network client. I understand that failure to comply with these procedures may result in the termination of services. The Urbandale Community Action Network reserves the right to refuse service at any time.

I have read, understood, and agreed to the Urbandale Community Action Network's Transportation Services Guidelines and Release of Liability.
